The IceHouse Theatre presents
A 1930's comedy for the new era!
TWENTIETH CENTURY
January 22 – February 14, 2010

It is 1933 aboard the luxury train, The Twentieth Century Limited bound from Chicago to NYC. Oscar Jaffe, an egomaniacal Broadway producer, is coming off a string of gigantic flop shows – and desperate. He hatches a plan to sign the biggest Hollywood star, Lily Garland, to a contract for his next smash hit show – the only problem is that she is his ex-girlfriend, he doesn't have a script to produce, and he's broke! That's where the comic mayhem and the snappy dialogue begin, as Jaffe manipulates everyone aboard the train to get what he wants. Broadway audiences were delighted when this brilliantly funny adaptation by the master of American farce, Ken Ludwig (Moon Over Buffalo, Lend Me a Tenor) debuted. This delightful romp is based on the 1933 Ben Hecht and Charles McArthur play – a playwriting team best known for The Front Page, a play that launched a string of breathless screwball comedies in the 1930's on Broadway and on film. Performances of Twentieth Century are Thursdays-Sundays, January 22 – February 14, at the IceHouse Theatre, 1100 N. Unser St., Mount Dora, FL 32757.

Chamber Member Milestones:

Congratualtions!

Thursday, January 7 at 5p, the Montessori at Roseborough opened its doors to the public to come in and see their new facility. The school is now relocated in the only remaining building of Roseborough Elementary at the corner of 5th Avenue and Clayton Street. The staff and volunteers have done tremendous work in transforming the building to a warm, inviting space with wonderful classrooms that are age appropriate. Among some of the offerings include several reading areas in the main lobby area and outside areas outside of each classroom for projects including gardening, art, etc.

If your business is celebrating a milestone we would love to share it with the membership please call Lori at 352-383-2165.

Greg Gruetzmacker of Classique Bowl

was featured in December 2009 Bowling
Center Management Magazines Members
Spotlight.

Greg has been in the bowling business for 22 years. Asked how he got into the bowling business he said, he was a general contractor and liked to bowl. In 1987 when business was slow, it looked to him like Lake County needed some bowling activity.

Business has been steady for him. He started out with 16 lanes in 1987, doubled that to 32 and just added eight more. They are doing more corporate parties since they have a separate meeting room for business before they go and have fun bowling.

Asked what he sees as the biggest trend in bowling, he says corporate meetings coupled with bowling to build team spirit. Plus, we are seeing a lot more youth bowlers come in the door. They have a lot of senior programs because of the large retired demographic in the area.

Greg is a member of the BPAA because of the wealth of information available and the chance to share innovative ideas with other in the industry.

Clean Sweep: Mount Dora Bed &
Breakfast earns second straight housekeeping award

On behalf of Superior Small Lodging Association, the Lake County Tourism & Business Relations Division presented the Farnsworth House Bed & Breakfast of Mount Dora with a 2009 Donal A. Dermody White Glove Award, the only small accommodation in the County to receive the award.

The White Glove Award is a prestigious honor that is awarded for housekeeping excellence. While there are thousands of hotels, motels, bed & breakfasts, travel lodges, inns, beach houses, resorts and other hospitality destinations across the state, only 80 locations earned the coveted 2009 White Glove Award.

“The White Glove Award is our organization's highest recognition for housekeeping achievement,” said Donna Boucher, Superior Small Lodging Association executive director. “Properties must receive a Total Housekeeping Score of 100 percent in their annual review to receive this award.”

Facilities are nominated and selected through a detailed annual inspection. Experienced, independent inspectors select the winning small lodgings based on strict industry criteria including, quality of bath and bed linens as well as cleanliness of every room. The White Glove Awards were announced at the annual conference of Superior Small Lodging Association in November 2009.

“Everyone at the conference is hoping to receive one of these,” said Debi Dyer, Lake County Tourism Specialist to bed & breakfast owners Bob and Vivian Rodriguez. “The Farnsworth House Bed & Breakfast made Lake County look beautiful at the conference.”

Vivian added, “Lake County is so beautiful it deserves these types of awards. This is our second year in row to receive the White Gloves Award. It’s such an honor.”

HOLOFCENER OPENS ART GALLERY IN MOUNT DORA

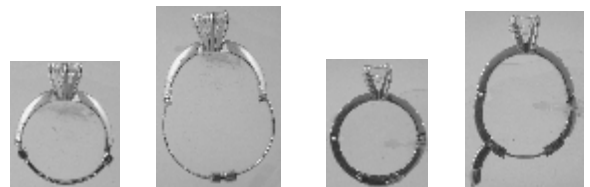

International sculptor and painter, Lawrence Holofcener, has chosen to open his studio gallery in Mount Dora, which has had a long reputation as a mecca for art and antiques. He and his wife, Julia, have lived in Europe for the past 15 years, where Mr. Holofcener produced many life-size monuments. Among them are Allies - Churchill and Roosevelt - in London; Thomas Chatterton, William Penn and William Tyndale in Bristol, England; Faces of Olivier at the Chichester Theatre, UK, and Thomas Paine in Bordentown, NJ. While living in the south of France, he was given two prestigious exhibitions of his sculptures and paintings, which led to a documentary on his professional career, to be released next year.

Mr. Holofcener invites the public to visit his Studio and Gallery at 133 5th Avenue in charming Mount Dora and watch him work. Hours are 10-12 and 2-5 Thursday through Saturday, and 1-5 on Sunday. Visitors will find him either painting local landscapes or modeling a life-size portrait of John Lennon from his series Icons of the 20th Century. Further information may be found at www.holofcener.com.

Thomas Kinkade Patrick's Fine Art Gallery will be hosting the Pat Kinkade Heritage Tour March 6th & 7th, 2010 at their location, 352 Alexander Street, Mount Dora
